Non-financial Asset Management Seminar in Shanghai

On 21 April 2015, I attended a non-financial asset management seminar co-organised by the GPD, other divisions, Shanghai Forum and The Hong Kong Chamber of Commerce in China (HKCCC) at the New World Shanghai Hotel. Around 70 HKIS members, HKCCC members, and other professionals attended the seminar. Being a speaker at the seminar, I enlightened the audience on the definition of asset management, types of asset management, the life cycle of an asset, and the flow of asset management. I also gave the audience a clear picture of how HKIS members can provide one-stop services of non-financial asset management, particularly for non-performing assets, to the public. Last, I initiated and planned a one-day seminar on asset management in Shanghai at the end of this year to further promote the HKIS's expertise in the area to potential users of its services. I thank the Institute's organising committee especially Sr Iris Lee, Chairlady of Shanghai Forum and Sr Martin Leung for arranging this successful event and extend my appreciation to Sr Jeffrey WONG, the MC of the seminar.
