非常社區節（油尖旺區）

VeryHK hosted a ten day community festival in the Yau Tsim Mong District from 18-27 August by partnering with over 30 local NGOs to kickstart different placemaking ventures there such as exhibitions, busking music shows, etc. YSG was honoured to be one of the community partners and provided 21 volunteers for the event. It was a good opportunity for its members to reach out to the local community and make positive contributions to society.

Networking Drinks and Young Leaders Sharing Session

Join YSG for an exclusive networking drinks event on 5 October 2023 at KIN Food Hall! This gathering will offer an opportunity to connect with young leaders who are making strides in the field of sustainability in surveying. Come listen to their useful insights, learn about the latest trends, and engage in meaningful discussions on sustainability practices. This event is not just about expanding your professional network, but also about fostering a community that values innovation and sustainability in surveying. Don't miss out on this chance to connect, learn, and contribute to the future of sustainable surveying. Reserve your spot today and be a part of the change!

Visiting Elderly Centre

Mark your calendars for a heartwarming event on 16 September 2023! YSG invites you to volunteer for a special charity event at an elderly centre to share in the joy and traditions of the Mid-Autumn Festival. From engaging in lively chats to playing games, participants will create unforgettable moments with the beloved elderly community. YSG's aim is to not only bring smiles to some senior citizens, but also to foster intergenerational bonding and respect. This is an excellent opportunity for YSG members to contribute positively to society and experience a sense of fulfilment that comes from selfless service. So, come and brighten the lives of your elderly friends this Mid-Autumn Festival. Sign up as a volunteer today and make a difference!
